

Allyson T. Cohen

Email: atcohen@sianalaw.com

Areas of Practice

- Civil Litigation

Education

- Vermont Law & Graduate School
- Alfred University

Bar Admissions

- Pennsylvania

Allyson Cohen is a native of Merrick, NY, and currently resides in Chester Springs, PA. She earned a Bachelor of Liberal Arts and Sciences in History from Alfred University and is a graduate of Vermont Law and Graduate School. Prior to starting law school, she earned a Master's in Food and Agriculture Law and Policy. While completing her degrees she was a member of Law Review/ Vermont Journal of Environmental Law, National Moot Court Competition Team, Moot Court Advisory Board, and won the academic advancement award for her graduating class. She also was the President of the Jewish Law Student Association at Vermont Law and Graduate School. Ms. Cohen has worked as an intern at the Rutland County District Attorney's Office and the Colorado Attorney General's Office. She focuses her work on civil litigation and property law. In her spare time Allyson enjoys running and playing pickle ball.