

Rachel M. Sorokin

rmsorokin@sianalaw.com

Areas of Practice

- General Liability
- Municipal Tort Defense

Education

- James Madison University
- Widener University Delaware School of Law

Bar Admissions

- Pennsylvania

Rachel M. Sorokin is an Associate Attorney at Siana Law, where she focuses on delivering practical, client-centered legal solutions with a strong foundation in research, analysis, and advocacy. Drawing on her academic excellence and diverse legal experience, Rachel brings a thoughtful and strategic approach to every matter she handles. A native of Bucks County, Pennsylvania, Ms. Sorokin earned her Juris Doctor from Widener University Delaware Law School, where she served as a Staff Editor for the Widener Law Review. During law school, she also gained valuable experience as a legal intern with a West Chester law firm, assisting in case preparation and legal research across multiple practice areas. Ms. Sorokin currently resides in West Chester and is an active member of the Chester County Bar Association.

